Your holiday includes 5 days painting tuition with Lisa Steincke, accommodation in en suite rooms, all Italian airport transfers, freshly prepared, home cooked food and unlimited wine with dinner!

flights are not included and based on Ryanair Stansted to Pescara

Lisa is a professional artist and inspirational tutor and demonstrator working in watercolour in a loose and vibrant style.

She runs regular weekly classes in Hampshire as well as visiting art clubs and societies as guest tutor and demonstrator.

Her aim as a tutor is to share as much of her knowledge on colour, drawing and watercolour tips and techniques whilst encouraging students to develop their Five fabulous days painting a wealth of subject matter. There really is something for everyone whether you love to paint ancient old olive trees, architecture, such as quaint village houses or dramatic medieval ruins, a busy market scene, pastoral views or zoom right in onto the fabulous fauna and flora. A variety of subjects will be tackled during the holiday, but the schedule will remain individually flexible.

A little painting experience is required.

The aim of the course will be to create lively colourful interpretations of this wonderful Italian landscape.

Each day will be filled with demonstrations, tutorials one to one tuition, critiques and painting on location.

Lisa will be working alongside you supporting, and encouraging you to explore and develop your own style.

The price of this holiday is based on 2/3 friends sharing the ensuite accommodation. Also arriving/ leaving from the same airports as a group. Partners welcome but only as full painting participants..

£625 pp.
